

NAME: ANNA PERRY

EDUCATION: Trained Speech and Drama Specialist. Diploma Rose Bruford. Training College of Speech and Drama.

EXPERIENCE: BROADCASTER:

Interviewer, 5-8 featurettes, 15' and 30' programmes on wide variety of subjects contributed to:

BBC RADIO 4: Break-away (Travel programme, including solo trip to Red China), Schools, Sunday, Today, Woman's Hour, Further Education (three 30' programmes in New for Old series 1985), Co-presenter & reporter On Course 1987 (7 programme series on further education) Ditto 1988.

BBC RADIO 2: Diet and Health correspondent for Night-ride (5-6' talks including series on nutrition).

BBC WORLD SERVICE: Outlook; interviews include Dirk Bogarde; Cassius Clay; Roald Dahl. Beryl Grey.

Features on most subjects, including monthly series looking at life in a Devon village throughout a whole year; feature on Ayurvedic medicine.

Network UK: Compiles and presented 15' programmes. Subjects includes autism, abortion, euthanasia, drink and driving, anorexia, conservation, cottage hospitals, criminal compensation, prostitution, etc.

Science Action: Recent medical items include allergies; addiction; cancer research; nutrition i sport; Oxford Prevention against Heart Attack and Stroke Project; new-style nursing at Radcliffe Infirmary; transcendental meditation.

Full length 30' documentaries, including After a Fashion (Jeff Banks). The Sweet Scent of Success (Story of perfume), and The Face of England.

UNS RADIO SERVICES: Currently: numerous interviews, featurttes, chairing of discussion for syndicated local radio tapes.

BFBS/SSVC: Items of topical interest to service people, to slot into music and consumer programmes.

FRENCH-SPEAKING COMMISSIONS: 30' radio programme on old age, commissioned by international pharmaceutical firm - both English and French speakers.

TUTOR:

CTVC: Radio and Television tutor; specialising in interviewing, voice technique and writing for radio. CRTVC: Television tutor. UNS RADIO SERVICES: How to be interviewed by local radio.

WRITER:

TIMES: Travel article on Lanzarote (Co-Written with Cass Allen).

TELEVISION:

Relief continuity announcer - TVS Southampton.

Interview/presenter for BBC Training (current affairs and magazine programmes - film and studio).

Presenter for Dr's Club within monthly programme for BMTV (British Medical TV).

Presenter & interviewer: Video for Univite Nutrition Ltd on the Micro Diet.

Presenter & interviewer: Video report of symposium on Medical Applications of Transcendental Meditation given at St. George's Hospital, Tooting.

Presenter (as "Ward Sister"): Video on Bard Foley Catheters.

Presenter & Interviewer: Open College Videos.

Presenter: Birds Eye in-house training video.

Presenter & Interviewer: Introductory video to Transcendental Meditation.

Reporting for British Medical Televisions monthly video programme for GP's.

Subjects include: Selection & fitting of contraceptive caps, Head & Body Lice, Warts, Pre-Menstrual Syndrome, Dysmenorrhoea, Health & safety at work (2 progs), Child Sleep Problems, Scabies, Hypothermia & Chill Factor, Computers in General Practice (2 progs).

Researcher - British Medical TV programme on problem of pain, (Arthritic & Period pain). Interviews in Japan, India & U.S.A.

Reporting for Dentistry Video Magazine on Motivating Patients Towards Better Oral Health.